Continue the journey, you will be introduced to the Notre Dame Cathedral. This work is a replica of the Notre Dame Cathedral in Paris with building materials imported entirely from France. With specially designed, the cathedral can withstand up to 10 times the entire interior church structure. In the next destination, you can see the beautiful structures from the French Colonial times – the historic Central Post Office that is one of the typical buildings of Ho Chi Minh City, located at No. 2 St. Charles Square, Ben Nghe Ward and District 1. This work is built by the French from 1886–1891 and designed by Villedieu architect and his assistant – Foulhoux, which makes it have European-style architecture combined with Asian decor.

Followed by the remarkable site of Ho Chi Minh City is the War Remnants Museum that has a vast display of both the Indochina wars. It is a museum dedicated to the doing research, preservation and display of the evidence of crimes and the consequences of wars invaded by forces.
